TYNGSBORO -- Greater Lowell Technical High School has announced its March Students of the Month, each displaying the characteristics of respect, effort, accountability, commitment and honesty in their classes and among their peers.

Jasmine Del llano Lazo of Lowell is the Senior of the Month. She is enrolled in the Medical Laboratory and Assisting program and is a consistent honor-roll student. She earned a bronze medal in the Science Fair and is a member of the varsity soccer team. She volunteers for the City of Lights Parade, the BayState Marathon and many other events.

Jasmine works at D'Youville Life and Wellness Center through the school's Cooperative Education program and is working toward becoming a certified nursing assistant. She was nominated for being compassionate and highly motivated.

Chandra Yim of Lowell is the Junior of the Month. She is a high-honors student in the Cosmetology program. She is a member of the SkillsUSA team and earned first place in the In-House Nail Care Competition. She plays volleyball and received the Most Improved Player Award.

Chandra is a member of the Young Professionals Leadership program at the Cambodian Mutual Assistance Association and does work for the Career Center in Lowell. She hopes to attend college after graduation. She was nominated for being an all-around great student.

Kaitlyn Sullivan of Lowell is the Sophomore of the Month. She is a high-honors student in the Health Assisting and Pre Nursing program and is ranked fifth in the Class of 2021. She is a member of the SkillsUSA team and competed in the District Competition, earning a perfect score on the OSHA test.

Kaitlyn volunteers for the Lowell General Walk for Cancer Care and assisted with a local clothing drive. She plans to attend college to become a pediatrician. She was nominated for her outstanding work and positive attitude.

Savanna Goodin of Dracut is the Freshman of the Month. She entered Greater Lowell Tech from Dracut Middle School. She is an honor-roll student in the Health Assisting and Pre Nursing program. She is a member of the Drama Club and played a lead role in the school's recent production of "10 Ways to Survive the End of the World." She is also a member of the Media Club.

Savanna volunteers for the Merrimack Valley Food Bank and D'Youville Life and Wellness Center. She plans to attend college and work as a hospice nurse. She was nominated for putting forth her best effort every day and for her love of learning.
